

La Bibliothèque Terms of Use

Our library is open to everyone, adults and children of all ages. To check out books from our library, you need to be registered as a member or as a current student of the Alliance Française de Détroit/French Institute of Michigan.

What can I borrow?

Registration to the library gives access to a collection of books, magazines, DVDs, and comic books in French as well as to the Culturethèque e-library in French.

How can I register?

If you are not currently a student of the Alliance Française de Détroit/French Institute of Michigan, you must become a member. Note Children under 18 be part of a family membership.

Any documents to bring to register?

Yes, make sure to bring along a valid identification document.

How do I use my membership?

As soon as you become a member, you will be entered in our data base of members. As a member, you will have access to the library's collection of material including the Culturethèque e-library in French, receive invitations to our events and programs, and benefit from a membership fee at our events. Membership is good for one year from the date of registration.
